

“Think Big, Be Bold and ACT NOW”

Patrick Bizindavyi.

About Patrick

Patrick is a motivational and inspirational speaker who shares his journey on coming to Canada from his native land of Burundi with $60.00 in his pocket and a dream. Before coming to Canada, Patrick was a successful radio host and a top ranked basketball coach in Burundi. But, upon his arrival to Canada, he found himself a refugee living at homeless shelters and eating at soup kitchens. During the darkest times, Patrick not only discovered himself but understood he had to put his unbreakable self-belief and determination to work.

In less than six months, Patrick’s strong conviction and tenacity took him from homelessness to being the radio host and Project Manager at radio 105.4 CHOQ FM in Toronto. Patrick began sharing his story. He believes that everyone can have and become everything they dream. His inspiring story and passion to serve has helped others achieve their goals despite their circumstances. Patrick divides his time between speaking; coaching and giving back by assisting new immigrants through the Canadian immigration process and helping them find jobs and housing.

As he reflects on his life’s journey, Patrick credits specific key steps that helped him become the person he is today; a man of commitment, drive and enthusiasm who is determined to empower individuals to reach out and become the persons they always wanted to be in their personal and professional life.

Patrick’s story of unwavering conviction to not become a statistic was published in the Huffingtonpost on June 20, 2015. It is an article that reveals Patrick’s life as one of vision, self-belief and incredible determination to achieve his dreams. Patrick is President and one of the co-founders of Unleashed Possibilities (UP) Inc., a company which inspires, motivates and empowers individuals to think BIG, be BOLD and ACT NOW on their dreams and goals.

Patrick the Speaker

Patrick the Coach

Patrick connects with individuals through his own personal story on not allowing your circumstance to define you. As a Transformational and Accountability coach, he works with individuals by inspiring, motivating and empowering them to think BIG, be BOLD and ACT NOW on their dreams and goals! Individuals who have been coached by Patrick continually share with him and others the positive impact his coaching continues to have in their lives.

"Working with Patrick has increased my confidence. I went from what I am going to do with my life to putting on my first corporate business event." Bob Walker

Patrick the Blogger

Patrick is no stranger to the blogging world; he started his first blog, called "Journeyman Stories", back in 2008. Through this blog, he used his life stories to inspire and empower its readers to go out and create the lives they have always dreamed.

He is now at it again with an all new dynamic blog. Together with Paul Renie, another co-founder of Unleashed Possibilities, he writes weekly blogs with a unique approach that combines inspiration and motivation with a pragmatic and act now attitude. The entire mission of the blog is to inspire, motivate and empower its readers to think BIG, be BOLD and ACT NOW on their dreams and goals.
